The British Egyptian Education Conference

London and Cairo, 18 and 19 September 2012
www.britishegyptiansociety.org.uk/conference

In association with
THE BRITISH EGYPTIAN EDUCATION CONFERENCE

A meeting involving the Egyptian and British Governments; Cairo University; London Middle East Institute, SOAS, University of London; Institute of Education, University of London; the British Council; the British Egyptian Business Association; Pembroke College, Oxford University; University of Cambridge ESOL; and distinguished business and education speakers from both Egypt and the UK.

To be held simultaneously in Cairo and London through video links

THE PRINCIPAL CONFERENCE THEMES ARE:

- Education policy, management, and finance in a democratic society
- Teacher training and professional development
- The relationship between education and training and employment

The Latest Programme is available on the British Egyptian Society website at www.britishegyptiansociety.org.uk/conference

To register for the conference in London please visit www.britishegyptiansociety.org.uk/conference or the events section at the LMEI website: www.soas.ac.uk/LMEI

In Cairo if you wish to pre-register please e.mail VZ1@soas.ac.uk. However, it is possible to register at the Cairo University Conference Centre on the days of the conference.

SPONSORS

Professor Magdy Ishak Hanna

BEPAC

vodafone

ahli united bank

ADDITIONAL SPONSOR

HSBC

UNIVERSITY OF CAMBRIDGE ESOL Examinations

PEARSON