

11.2 Support of arts and heritage

11.2.5 CU as a body contributes to local arts, in terms of number of annual public performances of university choirs / theatre groups / orchestras etc..

CU contributes to local arts in terms of supporting and staging theatre performances through its student activities:

- 1- The 1st evidence: Mahragan (University) Theatre — “Long plays” festival (May 7–24, 2024) — staged performances from ~18 faculties (Agriculture, Dar al-Ulum, Archaeology, Mass Communication, Law, Pharmacy, Veterinary, Commerce, etc.). Source: Cairo University news/announcement.
- 2- The 2nd evidence: Faculty of Mass Communication — staged the play “Three Seats on the Last Train” (part of university theatre activity / festival circuits).
- 3- The 3rd evidence: Faculty of Law — staged the play “Ihtebas” on 18 May 2024 as part of the long-plays festival; Law’s company also performed Baroud Orchestra which won prizes in the short-plays festival.
- 4- The 4th evidence: Faculty music/theatrical awards included music categories — festival coverage shows awards for music, composition and “best music” among competing faculty productions (evidence in festival coverage).
